Catholic University's motto — God Is My Light — is a constant reminder of our origin and mission. For 133 years, it has served as a guide as the University educates students who go on to serve the nation and transform the world. Now, more than ever during the coronavirus pandemic, the University is serving those in need — including members of our own community.

Support of the National Collection not only supports students but also helps the University serve dioceses and parishes through innovative research initiatives and training programs, such as The Catholic Project - an initiative that aims to heal the breach of trust many have experienced as a result of the current crisis in the Church, an online Child Protection Certificate Program, a Master's program in Ecclesial Administration and Management, and a credentialing program that prepares recent graduates to serve as campus ministers.

These are a few examples how the University is responding to the most pressing needs of our Church and nation.
