Educating Future Catholic Leaders

Catholic University's motto — God Is My Light — is a constant reminder of our origin and mission. For 137 years, it has guided the University as we educate students who go on to serve the nation and transform the world.

Under the guidance of University President Peter Kilpatrick, we help students build their future. Gifts to the National Collection support our work and also help the University serve dioceses and parishes through innovative research and training programs. These programs include the Catholic Project, which brings together clergy and laity to address challenges faced by the Catholic Church.

There are many ways the University is responding to the most pressing needs of our Church and nation while educating our country's future Catholic leaders. Please give generously.
