

The Catholic University of America Alumni Association

Board of Directors Nomination Form

The Catholic University of America Alumni Association is seeking to fill at-large positions on its Board of Directors. The Board of Directors builds Cardinal pride, shares good news about the University, encourages prospective students, and serves the University in a variety of other ways. New members will play a crucial role in fostering connections among alumni, current students, and the greater Catholic University community.

Nominations are being accepted Oct. 1-Dec. 15, 2025. Newly selected board members will begin their two-year, renewable term of service in the spring of 2026.

When submitting manually via email, please answer the questions below and email your responses to Josh Webb at webbj@cu.edu.
